Once again Livingston Cricket Club and Livingston Round Table have joined forces to host a weekend celebrating the finest local (and not so local) beers.

In the line-up this year you will find a variety of beers ranging from the light Alechemy Starlaw Pale Ale to the heaviest beer we have this year, Windswept Wolf Strong Dark Ale.

- Alechemy - Starlaw - 3.5% Pale Ale - A light pale ale with a subtle bitter hop flavour and light citrus zest aromas
- Alechemy - Ritual (Cairnpapple) 4.1% Pale Ale - A well balanced light, refreshing IPA with a floral aroma leading to a lingering citrus taste
- Alechemy - 10 Storey Malt Bomb - 4.5% 80/- - A modern take on the Scottish 80 Shilling style using 10 varieties of malt
- Loch Lomond - Silkie Stout - 5.0% Stout - A rich chocolate stout with subtle hints of coffee and orange
- Loch Lomond - Southern Summit - 4.0% Pale Ale - A light pale ale with a strong lemon bitter finish and light grapefruit aromas
- Loch Lomond - Project Belma - 3.8% Pale Ale - A pale ale with light grapefruit aromas and balanced citrus flavours
- Loch Ness - Lightness - 3.9% Pale Ale - Light doesn't need to be boring. A refreshing pale ale with a hint of hop and citrus finish. SO much taste from so little abv
- Loch Ness - Hoppyness - 5.0% Golden Ale/IPA - A pale ale with a fusion of bittering hops and a wonderful three hop finish. It does exactly what it says on the tin
- Windswept - Wolf - 6.0% Strong Dark Ale - A dark and powerful brew named after the infamous Wolf of Badenoch, Starts sweet with chocolate and liquorice, finishes moreish
